INTERN BUZZ

"Interning with the Matriots this summer has been an amazing experience! I have enjoyed networking with women across Ohio, who are involved in politics in a variety of different ways. It has opened my mind to potential career paths in politics I hadn't previously considered."

"One of the most impactful moments of my internship with The Matriots this past summer was a project day on July 9, where I had the opportunity to learn directly from CEO Emily Quick Schriver. Over the course of the afternoon, Emily broke down what it takes to lead a mission-driven nonprofit, offering a look into the structure, strategy, and daily decision-making that power The Matriots' political influence. Her passion for women's leadership and civic engagement was infectious, and she spoke candidly about her own career path, from law to advocacy to leading a statewide movement to elect more women to office in Ohio.

Hearing about The Matriots' founding story, from a group of women around a kitchen table to a political powerhouse endorsing dozens of candidates across the state, helped me better understand the purpose behind the research I was doing as an intern. Throughout the summer, I researched candidates' profiles, analyzed voter demographics, and supported endorsement recommendations—but this session gave me the "why" behind that work. Emily emphasized the importance of organizational stewardship, thoughtful growth, and staying true to mission—lessons I know I'll carry into any future leadership role."
